

BEGORRAH! — Irish head waiters Frank Galassi, Ray Soto and Dick Divinski, ticket chairman, discuss plans for the eighth annual St. Patrick's Day corned beef dinner being sponsored by St. Catherine Laboure Holy Name Society. The event is scheduled to take place Sunday, March 18, in the parish hall, 3846 Redondo Beach Blvd., Torrance.

Torrance Church Among Delegates To Youth Meet

The First Christian Church of Torrance was among the thirteen church delegates attending the annual World Fellowship meeting of the Christian Youth Fellowship, Harbor-Bay District of Christian Churches.

Meeting took place March 2 and 3 at the First Christian Church of Wilmington, 444 E. Lomita Blvd.

Theme chosen for the event was, "Whose World Tomorrow?"

All activities of the meeting focused on the outreach mission of the Church; the responsibility of each individual Christian to share in the outreach witness; and the ways in which individuals and groups may reach out to strengthen the Christian witness in the nation and the world.

Speakers were: Miss Chela Andreau, student at Chapman College, Orange California, from Peru, South America; Rev. James Turner, chairman of Camp and Conference program, So. Calif. area of Christian churches and minister of Camille Christian Church, Santa Ana, Calif.; Dr. Hugh Williams, Resource Leader, retired missionary to Latin America and presently associate minister of the Redondo-South Bay Christian Church.

Call classified, DA 5-1515.

Mitzelfelt Chorale Appears At Mira Costa High School

Saturday, March 17 at 7:30 p.m. marks the beginning of a series of cultural programs to be presented in the South Bay Harbor area, sponsored by the Seventh-day Adventist churches in this area.

The Mitzelfelt Chorale will appear at the new Mira Costa High School Auditorium, Gould Lane at Peck Ave., Manhattan Beach. For tickets call DA 6-3814 or FR 6-2189. Tickets will also be on sale at the auditorium the evening of the performance.

The Mitzelfelt Chorale has risen to prominence in the field of choral music in a startlingly short time. On a part time basis, while pursuing his formal education, H. Vincent Mitzelfelt has created a group capable of a vital, intense, interpretation of the outstanding religious and classical choral music.

Through concerts, radio and television appearances and recordings, the Mitzelfelt Chorale has reached a level of recognition among those who know of its work that may best be demonstrated by the fact that the Chorale was one of three American choral groups to perform in the International Music Festival in Los Angeles. The Hollywood and Inglewood Symphony Orchestras are among the groups with whom they have contracted appearances. The Chorale is recognized as a professional chorus, and includes in its ranks singers who have sung with Robert Shaw, Roger Wagner, Walter Schumann, Eugene Ormandy, Leopold Stokowski, Igor Stravinsky, and other well known conductors.

DeMolay Chapter Attends Meeting And Join Worship

"Hoping Against Hope" is the sermon topic at the First Presbyterian Church of Gardena, 1957 Redondo Beach Blvd., for Sunday March 18. Worship service is held each Sunday at 11 a.m. with nursery care provided. The Gardena Chapter of the DeMolay will attend and worship in a group this Sunday.

Church school classes are held every Sunday from 9:30 to 10:45 a.m. Miss Mead, director of Christian education, will hold classes on Monday evening at 7:30 and Tuesday morning at 10 a.m. (with child care) for future teachers and helpers for the church school during the month of March.

Twenty-three young people and their advisors will attend the Tri-Pres convention at Long Beach Friday and Saturday.

Mid-week meetings continue with the study of how to fight communism. The study groups this week will discuss "Communist Betrayal—Theory vs. Practice." Come on Wednesday morning at 10 with child care or on Thursday evening at 7:30.

H. VINCENT MITZELFELT
... Chorale creator

tor had early opportunity to develop his musical talents since both of his parents are professional musicians. He has brought this outstanding group to maturity while completing his formal studies. He attended undergraduate school on a music scholarship and during his college years he directed a number of choral groups and was choir director of a large Midwestern church. While finishing his undergraduate studies he was director of two college choirs, as well as of the college orchestra in 1954-55. Although he has been heavily involved in choral work while completing his formal studies, Dr. Mitzelfelt is also directing and recording with orchestras and he is Minister of Music at the White Memorial Church. The musical publishing house, Bourne, has contracted with Dr. Mitzelfelt to publish his arrangements of the outstanding choral music.

Creation Story Illustrated in Church Program

On Wednesday evening, March 21, at 7:30 p.m., the South Bay Church of God, 17661 Yukon Ave., will have as their guest Everett J. Mock who will present a 55 minute program entitled the "Wonderful Works of God." This program consists of a reading of the Creation Story from Genesis, beautifully illustrated with colorful slides, an illustrated message concerning God's creative works in nature including the Earth, Solar System and Outer Space, with some reference to Atomic Structure, and concluding with a special solo of "How Great Thou Art" illustrated, also, with beautiful Biblical and Scenic slides.

Pastor Clifford L. Tierney extends an invitation to all.

Buddhist Jr. Matrons Install Officers at Saturday Dinner

The semi-annual election meeting of Gardena Jr. Matrons was held on March 5, with Mrs. Rushie Shimohara presiding. The officers elected were Kay Shikuma, president; Yoshiko Miwa, first vice president; Ruby Iizuka, second vice president; Haru Hara, third vice president; Sally Nakata, recording secretary; Chiyoko Sugita, corresponding secretary; Yuri Takeyama, treasurer; and Susie Fukuzaki, publicity chairman.
